St. Luke News

A fair crowd of people attended the 3rd Sunday preaching services at the St. Luke Baptist Church at 11:00 a.m. Pastor McLaughlin was present and in charge. Rev. Alvin Jones assisted in the devotions. The Senior Choir gave inspiring music. Rev. McLaughlin preached using subject "I Can't But God Can", text 2nd Kings 19 chapter 14th verse. Eziekel said Lord thou knoweth whether these dry bones can live. This was very impressive and well taken. The offering was good. Some visitors attended the services also.

On Sunday, Feb. 22 the St. Luke Choir will have an anniversary program at 3:00 p.m. All are invited to come and enjoy the occasion.

The Senior Citizens of St. Luke attended the work meeting at the home of Mrs. Evatna Prophett Feb. 9, 1981. The meeting was quite interesting. They also go regular to Lynchburg Home training school and hospital to do volunteer work. They enjoy doing that very much.

On Feb. 10 Mrs. Louise Canada was invited to Appomattox Senior Citizens Center as speaker for them. This was quite refreshing; a nice hot lunch was served and was very appetizing.

The St. Luke Church School is planning an appreciation service for Deacon Jack Hurtt on the third Sunday in March at 6:30 p.m. He has attended Sunday school there since 1903. Seventy eight years of attendance. All are invited to come in honor to this occasion.

The ill ones have returned home from the hospital and are doing very well.
